Soo Kang

Soo Kang has been working at 135th Street since October 2015, supporting the emotional, physical and personal well-being of the service recipients he works with. He exhibits ethical behavior, a commitment to inclusiveness ensuring community shared discussion and collaborative decision making. Soo listens actively to help assess their wants and needs.

Competency Area A: Supporting a person's unique capacities, personality and potential

Soo helps the residents recognize and take pride in their abilities and achievements to encourage and build self-confidence. For example, supporting and encouraging one of the men to be the best rapper he can be, learning how to read and learning how to fill out and fax a prescription renewal request form.

Competency Area I: Exhibiting Professional Behavior; demonstrates the following desirable professional qualities in the worksite: professional demeanor, attention to punctuality and attendance policies, reliability, flexibility, and pleasantness

Soo demonstrates courtesy to others by contributing to a positive atmosphere. He continuously engages in productive activity while at work. Soo readily adapts to change in work assignments, and serves as a positive role model and team member, makes decisions that he is capable of making and checks with the supervisor whenever necessary.
