

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

THE CENTER FOR FAMILY SUPPORT

JULY'S WINNER IS DANIELLE JAMES

Nominated by Day Program Manager Mayelin Ubri

Danielle James has been working at CFS since Nov. 2013. She initially worked at the Union Day Program and then transferred to the Lincoln Park GH> Ultimately transferring to Hackensack DP where she is currently positioned. Danielle is a great asset to the Hackensack DP; she is a great team player and goes beyond her role of instructor to work with the individuals at the program. She works great with all the staff and receives rave reviews from her fellow staff on how good a job she does with individuals. Many of the individuals in the program prefer to participate in the Sensory class more often than usual because of her positive attitude and good sense of humor. She addresses the individuals with respect and does a great job in the Sensory Stim room, where she has become a permanent appointed staff. Danielle has done a great job with the Sensory room in the past year and has a great the room with her positive For these reasons I was Employee of the Month for

Danielle James
Hackensack Day Program

way of welcoming everyone into attitude and great work ethic. happy to nominate Danielle for July.
